19. Concept Development Children demonstrate the ability to connect pieces of information in understanding objects, ideas, and relationships. Infants, toddlers, and twos are like little scientists, engaged in endless experimentation as they learn to use tools, make things happen, and find out about the physical properties of things around them. All this leads to their ability to problem solve and later engage in more abstract thinking.
20. Memory Children demonstrate the ability to acquire, store, recall, and apply past experiences.	ITT Foundations: Cognitive Development, pages 147-160 Infants V1: - Abracadabra, page 71; Can You Remember, page 71; Chip-Can Scarves, page 72; Remembering, page 74; Mouth Sounds, page 91, Echo Me, Echo You, page 95; Ah, Boo, page 242; Make a Funny Face page 245; Toddlers/Twos V2: Peek-a-boo Card, page 60; Pulling Strings, page 61; Puzzle Fun, page 63; Block Stories, page 111	LED utilizes Brain Development Research in understanding how children gain and retain memory. Memory activities are embedded into everyday learning of the LED curriculum. Prior knowledge is the foundation for which activities are built on.
21. Spatial Relationships Children demonstrate and awareness of how objects and people move and fit in space.	ITT Foundations: Size, Shape and Space, pages 156-157 Infants V1: Follow the Bee, page 67; Left and Right, page 68; Where Did It Go, page 70; Compartments, page 72; On and Off, Open and Close, page 78; Roll Behind the Chair, page 80; What's In the Box? Children are provided intentional opportunities to explore size, shape, and space in their environment.
22. Symbolic Thought Children demonstrate the	ITT Foundations: Using Symbols, page 157 Infants V1: Housekeeping Area, page 40-41; Book Area, page 42-43;	LED activities are based on the fact that cognitive development involves thinking skills
